AS A COLLEGE STUDENT, ARE YOU ELIGIBLE FOR THE SUPPLEMENTAL NUTRITION ASSISTANCE PROGRAM (SNAP)?

Answer these questions to help your determine potential eligibility.

1. Are you Age 18 and under 50? YES NO
2. Are you physically or mentally fit?
   • You would circle No if you receive temporary or permanent disability benefits, have a statement from a physician or licensed/certified psychologist; or are receiving services through Vocational Rehabilitation. YES NO
3. Enrolled at least ½ time as defined by your school? YES NO

If you circle Yes to ALL three (3) questions above, you must meet at least one (1) of the following to receive SNAP benefits.

Are You?

1. Working 20 hours per week or an average of 80 hours per month? YES NO
2. Participating in the federal work-study program? YES NO
3. Receiving Families First/TANF Cash Assistance? YES NO
4. Working with or assigned to or placed in an institution of higher education through
   • SNAP Employment and Training? YES NO
   • Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA) assistance?
5. Enrolled ½ time and responsible for a child under 6 years of age? YES NO
6. Enrolled ½ time and responsible for a child who is 6 -12 year old; no access to child care? YES NO
7. Enrolled Full-time, single parent responsible for a child under 12, regardless of access to childcare? YES NO

Things to remember:

• Students who live in dorms and receive more than half their meals from a meal plan are not eligible for SNAP benefits.

• Students who qualify are subject to the regular income and asset limits for SNAP eligibility.

You can apply for SNAP benefits at your local Department of Human Services county office or online. Additional Information can be found: https://www.tn.gov/humanservices/for-families/supplemental-nutrition-assistance-program-snap/applying-for-services.html
