Tennessee Service Learning Consortium
About TN-SLC
The Tennessee Service Learning Consortium (TN-SLC) is a non-profit membership association of colleges and universities committed to promoting active citizenship as an aim of higher education.

The TN-SLC will serve as a key partner to other state efforts in creating solutions for higher education challenges of access, equity, and accountability while promoting engaged citizenship.

Founded by institutional service learning representatives across the state, the TN-SLC provides leadership in advocating, supporting, and increasing student involvement in academic and co-curricular-based public service.

The TN-SLC aims to strengthen the capacity of member institutions to serve society; to enhance student learning; and to develop in individual students the knowledge, values, skills, and habits of civic responsibility and democratic participation.

HOW YOU CAN JOIN
Membership is open to any nationally or regionally accredited two- or four-year higher education institution, graduate, or professional school in the State of Tennessee.

The Advisory Board may choose to permit other memberships from K-12 schools, chambers of commerce, state agencies, non-profit organizations, community-based organizations, faith-based organizations, foundations, and private corporations.

Entities interested in associating with the TN-SLC that do not meet membership criteria may be included as affiliated partners.

BENEFITS OF MEMBERSHIP
Benefits to members include:

- regional faculty service-learning curriculum integration training
- professional development forums, conferences, and workshops
- in-state resource sharing
- access to the TN-SLC website, listserv, and speakers’ bureau
- state-level legislative advocacy and coordination of Day on the Hill activities
- annual statewide survey statistics
- economic impact analyses
- program audit reviews
