

Accessible Instructional Materials & Technology Summit

Wednesday, September 17, 2014

8:00 am Registration Opens Salon Lobby
Continental Breakfast Cumberland Ballroom

While enjoying breakfast, please enjoy the video, "IT Accessibility: What Campus Leaders Have to Say."

9:00 am Welcome by Tennessee Board of Regents
Dr. Tristan Denley, Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs

9:15 am Setting the Stage: Legal Precedents & Higher Education's Obligation
Dan Goldstein, Counsel for the National Federation of the Blind

9:45 am Keynote:
Eve Hill, Deputy Assistant Attorney General for the Civil Rights Division, Department of Justice

10:45 am Q & A with Dan Goldstein and Eve Hill

11:30 am Lunch Salon Rooms D & E

12:30 pm My Story Cumberland Ballroom
Jamie Principato, student at Arapahoe Community College

1:00 pm A Model Plan
*Scott Lissner, President, Association on Higher Education & Disability
Ohio State University ADA Coordinator, Office of Diversity & Inclusion*

2:30 pm Panel Discussion with Featured Speakers

3:30 pm The Direction Forward
Dr. Tristan Denley, Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs

3:45 pm Ajournment

Sept. 17 & 18

Nashville Airport
Marriott Hotel

Cumberland
Ballroom

Speakers include:

Eve Hill
U.S. Department of Justice

Dan Goldstein
Brown, Goldstein & Levy

Scott Lissner
*Association on Higher Education
and Disability*

Tim Creagan
United States Access Board

Ron Stewart
Altformat Solutions, LLC

Jamie Principato
*Student, Arapahoe Community
College*

Joe Shaw
*National Federation for the Blind
Tennessee Chapter*

TENNESSEE BOARD OF REGENTS
STATE UNIVERSITY & COMMUNITY COLLEGE SYSTEM OF TENNESSEE

1415 Murfreesboro Road, Suite 324, Nashville, TN 37217-4464

Accessible Instructional Materials & Technology Summit

Thursday, September 18, 2014

8:00 am Registration Opens Salon Lobby
Continental Breakfast Cumberland Ballroom

While enjoying breakfast, please enjoy the video, "Building the Team: Faculty, Staff, and Students Working Together."

9:00 am Welcome by Tennessee Board of Regents
Dr. Tristan Denley, Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs

9:15 am Understanding the Standards
Tim Creagan, Senior Accessibility Specialist with the U.S. Access Board

10:15 am Q & A with Tim Creagan

10:45 am My Story
Joe Shaw, National Federation for the Blind Tennessee Chapter

11:15 am Buffet Luncheon Salon Rooms D & E

12:15 pm The Inclusive Model—Addressing Functional Usability
Ron Stewart, Managing Consultant, Altformat Solutions, LLC
Technology Advisor to Association on Higher Education & Disability

2:15 pm Conversation and Questions with Featured Speakers

3:00 pm Outcomes
Dr. Tristan Denley, Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs

3:45 pm Adjournment

Sept. 17 & 18

Nashville Airport
Marriott Hotel

Cumberland
Ballroom

Speakers include:

Eve Hill
U.S. Department of Justice

Dan Goldstein
Brown, Goldstein & Levy

Scott Lissner
*Association on Higher Education
and Disability*

Tim Creagan
United States Access Board

Ron Stewart
Altformat Solutions, LLC

Jamie Principato
*Student, Arapahoe Community
College*

Joe Shaw
*National Federation for the Blind
Tennessee Chapter*

TENNESSEE BOARD OF REGENTS
STATE UNIVERSITY & COMMUNITY COLLEGE SYSTEM OF TENNESSEE

1415 Murfreesboro Road, Suite 324, Nashville, TN 37217-4464

Accessible Instructional Materials & Technology Summit

Program Speakers

- ✦ Eve Hill, Deputy Assistant Attorney General for the Civil Rights Division, US Department Of Justice. Previously served as Senior Vice President of the Burton Blatt Institute at Syracuse University where she was responsible for the Institute's work on ADA. She was the District of Columbia's first Director of the Office of Disability Rights and Executive Director of the Disability Rights Legal Center, a leading nonprofit disability advocacy group in Los Angeles. She was a Supervisory Attorney with the U.S. Department of Justice's Disability Rights Section, where she supervised ADA investigations, created the Department's ADA Mediation Program, and developed the Department's ADA building code certification program. As visiting Associate Professor at Loyola Law School and an Adjunct Professor at the University of Southern California School of Law, she taught disability rights, and dispute resolution.
- ✦ Dan Goldstein, Counsel for the National Federation of the Blind, with Brown, Goldstein & Levy, Baltimore, Maryland. In the field of nonvisual access to educational technology, he has reached a broad ranging settlements with various Higher Education Systems and to cease procuring inaccessible technology, engage in a self-audits and create a remediation plans.
- ✦ Scott Lissner, President, Association on Higher Education and Disability, and Ohio State University ADA Coordinator; currently President of the Association on Higher Education and Disability and serves on the Board of Directors for ADA-OHIO. Recent publications include "Universal Design in the Institutional Setting: Weaving a Philosophy into Campus Planning"
- ✦ Tim Creagan, Senior Accessibility Specialist – United States Access Board. He is lead staff on the ongoing 508 Refresh of the Information and Communications Technology (ICT) Standards and Guidelines. Mr. Creagan is a nationally recognized expert on accessible electronic and information technology and telecommunications.
- ✦ Ron Stewart, Managing Consultant - Altformat Solutions LLC, and Technology Advisor to AHEAD: The Association on Higher Education and Disability. Ron Chairs the AHEAD E-Text Solutions Group and is member of the NIMAS Board. In 2001 Ron helped found the Access Technologist Higher Education Network and serves as the organizations President. Currently Ron is the Managing Consultant for AltFormat Solutions; a consulting and training organization focusing on solutions to curricular access.
- ✦ Jamie Principato, Student, Arapahoe Community College in Denver, CO. She is a 2nd year physics major who has a love for studying the universe. The exploration of math she became interested in physics. She hopes to work with mathematical models of the universe and data collection as a career.
- ✦ Joe Shaw, National Federation for the Blind, Tennessee Chapter. Joe attended Middle Tennessee State University. A father of six children, Joe has worked on state and national programs on behalf of the National Federation for the Blind.