The Board approved the search criteria and recruitment for the next president at Cleveland State Community College on December 9, 2021. The 18-member search committee was comprised of faculty, staff, alum, students, and community members, as well as Board Members.

The committee met for the first time on February 17 to review the search process. Then on March 9, the committee reviewed sixty- six (66) applications from all across the country. The committee narrowed the pool of candidates to eleven (11) to be interviewed on March 22-23. From that meeting, four (4) candidates were invited to participate in campus interviews on April 18-21.

After the interviews and campus visits were conducted and in consultation with committee members, Chancellor Tydings expects to make a recommendation to the Board at its special meeting on May 25.
